SUMMARY OF REQUESTED RELIEF AND EVIDENCE

1. This Application has been prepared in accordance with the Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 adopted by the Executive Office for United States Trustees, as referenced by the Region 17 United States Trustee Guidelines, and in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 2016 and Local Rule 2016.

¹ Province served its second monthly fee statement pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order on September 15, 2022, and expects that it will have been paid $131,861.50 by the time of the hearing on this Application. If so, then the total amount remaining to be paid under this Application would be $116,276.30.

2. This is the first interim application for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses filed by Province in this chapter 11 case. This Application covers the period of May 24, 2022 through August 31, 2022 (previously defined as the “Compensation Period”).

3. Pursuant to this Application, Province requests interim allowance of compensation of $581,381.50 and reimbursement of expenses of $750.07, for a total of $582,131.57, in connection with services provided during the Compensation Period. During the Compensation Period, Province’s professionals expended a total of 1,092.9 hours for which compensation is sought. A billing summary is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

4. Exhibit 2 attached hereto provides the invoices for the Compensation Period: (a) the dates on which Province performed professional services for the Debtor; (b) each person performing such services; (c) the amount of time spent by each person on each day that the person performs such services (charged in units of one-tenth [0.1] of an hour); (d) specific daily descriptions of the services performed by each person; and (e) details of the actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred and paid by Province during the Compensation Period in its representation of the Debtor.

5. The fees charged by Province in this chapter 11 case are billed in accordance with its existing procedures in effect during the Compensation Period. Province submits that its fees are reasonable in light of the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in a competitive market.

III.

BACKGROUND

10. On May 24, 2022, Front Sight Management LLC dba Front Sight Firearms Training Institute, a Nevada limited liability company, filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code ("Bankruptcy Code"). The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its affairs as a debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or committee has been appointed in the Debtor's chapter 11 case.

11. On May 31, 2022, the Debtor filed its Application to Employ Province, LLC as Financial Advisor Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 327(a) and 330 Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date [ECF No. 60] pursuant to which the Debtor sought to employ Province as its financial advisor.

12. On June 30, 2022, this Court entered its Order Granting Debtor's Application to Employ Province, LLC as Financial Advisor Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 327(a) and 330 [ECF No.225].

13. On August 5, 2022, the Court entered its Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Monthly Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Professionals [ECF No. 318] (previously defined as the "Interim Compensation Order") pursuant to which Province has served

1 two monthly fee statements (one on August 15, 2022 and one on September 15, 2022). Province
2 has been paid fees and expenses in the amount of $333,993.77 in connection with its August
3 monthly fee statement. Province has requested to be paid $131,861.50 in connection with its
4 September monthly fee statement (assuming that no objections are received).

5
6 14. The Debtor does not have a Chief Financial Officer or controller post-petition and
7 relies on Province to provide certain services that may normally fall under the purview of a CFO or 8 controller.

14 ACTUAL AND NECESSARY DISBURSEMENTS

15 16. Province has incurred and paid out-of-pocket expenses totaling $750.07 during the 16 Compensation Period. The items for which expense reimbursement are being sought are not 17 included in Province's overhead, and are not, therefore, a part of the hourly rates charged by 18 Province.

19 17. Province submits that the expenses that have been incurred and paid in rendering
20 services to the Debtor during the Compensation Period are reasonable and necessary under the 21 circumstances of this chapter 11 case, and that the reimbursement to Province for such expenses is 22 appropriate and should be allowed.

VII.

LEGAL ARGUMENT

18. The Court should approve Province’s compensation, which is subject to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 330(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “[i]n determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to [a] . . . professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors,” including the following:

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

19. A customary review of a fee application starts with a determination of the “lodestar,” by multiplying a reasonable number of hours expended by a reasonable hourly rate. See Unsecured Creditors’ Comm. v. Puget Sound Plywood, Inc., 924 F.2d 955, 960 (9th Cir. 1991); In re Powerline Oil Co., 71 B.R. 767, 770 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1986) (quoting In re Yermakov, 718 F.2d 1465, 1471 (9th Cir. 1983)). Bankruptcy courts frequently consider the specific lodestar factors set forth in Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974), as applied to bankruptcy cases. See Yermakov, 718 F.2d at 1471. The pertinent factors to be considered in establishing fees for professional services rendered are: (a) the time and labor required, the novelty and the difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill required to perform the legal services properly; (b) the

1 likelihood that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by
 2 Province; (c) the fee customarily charged for similar services; (d) the amount involved and the
 3 results obtained; (e) the time constraints required by the exigencies of the case, including the
 4 frequency and amount of time required to be devoted other than in regular business hours; (f) the
 5 nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; (g) the experience, reputation, and
 6 ability of the professionals performing the services; and (h) whether the fee is fixed or contingent.
 7 See In re Pacific Express, Inc., 56 B.R. 859 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1985); see also In re First Colonial
 8 Corp. of Am., 544 F.2d 1291 (5th Cir. 1977).

10 20. Additionally, a bankruptcy court may examine the circumstances and manner in 11 which services are performed and results achieved to determine a reasonable fee. See Roberts,
 12 Sheridan & Kotel, P.C. v. Bergen Brunswig Drug Co. (In re Mednet), 251 B.R. 103, 108 (B.A.P. 9th
 13 Cir. 2000). Such examination includes a review of the following factors:

- 15 a. Whether the services were authorized;
- 16 b. Whether the services were necessary or beneficial to the administration of the
- 17 estate at the time they were rendered;
- 18 c. Whether the services adequately documented; and
- 19 d. Whether the fees requested are reasonable, taking into consideration the factors
- 20 set forth in section 330(a)(3).

21 21. Pursuant to section 330(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may award the 22 professional persons reasonable compensation for all actual, necessary services rendered based on
 23 the nature, extent and value of the services rendered, time spent on such services and the cost of 24 comparable services other than in a bankruptcy case. The Court may also award reimbursement for 25 all actual, necessary expenses incurred pursuant to this same section.

26 22. Province submits that the requested professional compensation during the 27 Compensation Period is fair and reasonable under the circumstances of this case and its 28

1 representation of the Debtor therein. Each Province professional brought a high level of expertise
2 and experience which inured to the benefit of the Debtor and their estate.

3 23. The professional services performed by Province were necessary and appropriate to
4 the administration of the chapter 11 case, and were in the best interests of the Debtor, the estate,
5 creditors and other parties in interest. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is
6 commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problems, issues, and tasks
7 involved. The professional services were performed expeditiously, thoroughly, and in an efficient
8 manner. Province submits that its fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged
9 by comparably skilled practitioners in a competitive market. Province has carefully reviewed the 10 detailed time records submitted with the Application and exercised appropriate billing judgment.

11
12 24. Province has not entered into any arrangement or agreement with any person or entity
13 with respect to the sharing of fees and expenses for which Province is seeking compensation and 14 reimbursement as set forth in this Application, except as permitted by section 504(b)(1) of the 15 Bankruptcy Code.

16
17 25. Province submits that the professional fees for services rendered during the 18 Compensation Period are reasonable, actual and necessary under the circumstances of this chapter 11
19 case and therefore should be allowed.

20 21 CONCLUSION

22 WHEREFORE, Province respectfully requests that the Court (i) allow on an interim basis
23 fees in the amount of $581,381.50 for services performed and $750.07 for expenses incurred, for a
24 total of $582,131.57 during the Compensation Period of May 24, 2022 through August 31, 2022, (ii)
25 and an order authorizing and directing the Debtor to pay Province $248,137.80, which is the total
26 amount of fees and costs of Province incurred during the Compensation Period ($581,381.50) minus
27
28

1 the amounts that have already been paid to Province ($333,993.77) pursuant to the Interim
2 Compensation Order.²
