5

6 VI.

7 ACTUAL AND NECESSARY DISBURSEMENTS

8 16. Province has incurred and paid out-of-pocket expenses totaling $1,551.51 during the 9 Second Interim Compensation Period, and $2,301.58 during the Final Compensation Period. The 10 items for which expense reimbursement are being sought are not included in Province’s overhead,
11 and are not, therefore, a part of the hourly rates charged by Province.
12

13 17. Province submits that the expenses that have been incurred and paid in rendering
14 services to the Debtor during the Final Compensation Period are reasonable and necessary under the 15 circumstances of this chapter 11 case, and that the reimbursement to Province for such expenses is 16 appropriate and should be allowed.

17 VII.

18 LEGAL ARGUMENT

19 18. The Court should approve Province’s compensation, which is subject to section 330 of 20 the Bankruptcy Code. Section 330(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “[i]n determining the 21 amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to [a] . . . professional person, the court shall 22 consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant
23 factors,” including the following:
24

- 25 (A) the time spent on such services;
- 26 (B) the rates charged for such services;
- 27
- 28

- 1 (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the
- 2 time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under
- 3 this title;
- 4 (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time
- 5 commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem,
- 6 issue, or task addressed;
- 7 (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or
- 8 otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- 9 (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation
- 10 charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this
- 11 title.

12 19. A customary review of a fee application starts with a determination of the “lodestar,”

13 by multiplying a reasonable number of hours expended by a reasonable hourly rate. See Unsecured

14 Creditors’ Comm. v. Puget Sound Plywood, Inc., 924 F.2d 955, 960 (9th Cir. 1991); In re Powerine

15 Oil Co., 71 B.R. 767, 770 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1986) (quoting In re Yermakov, 718 F.2d 1465, 1471 (9th

16 Cir. 1983)). Bankruptcy courts frequently consider the specific lodestar factors set forth in Johnson

17 v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974), as applied to bankruptcy cases. See

18 Yermakov, 718 F.2d at 1471. The pertinent factors to be considered in establishing fees for

19 professional services rendered are: (a) the time and labor required, the novelty and the difficulty of

20 the questions involved, and the skill required to perform the legal services properly; (b) the

21 likelihood that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by

22 Province; (c) the fee customarily charged for similar services; (d) the amount involved and the

23 results obtained; (e) the time constraints required by the exigencies of the case, including the

24 frequency and amount of time required to be devoted other than in regular business hours; (f) the

25 nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; (g) the experience, reputation, and

26 ability of the professionals performing the services; and (h) whether the fee is fixed or contingent.

27 See In re Pacific Express, Inc., 56 B.R. 859 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1985); see also In re First Colonial

28 Corp. of Am., 544 F.2d 1291 (5th Cir. 1977).

1 20. Additionally, a bankruptcy court may examine the circumstances and manner in
2 which services are performed and results achieved to determine a reasonable fee. See Roberts,
3 Sheridan & Kotel, P.C. v. Bergen Brunswig Drug Co. (In re Mednet), 251 B.R. 103, 108 (B.A.P. 9th
4 Cir. 2000). Such examination includes a review of the following factors:

- 5 a. Whether the services were authorized;
- 6 b. Whether the services were necessary or beneficial to the administration of the
- 7 c. Whether the services adequately documented; and
- 8 d. Whether the fees requested are reasonable, taking into consideration the factors
- 9 d. Whether the fees requested are reasonable, taking into consideration the factors
- 10 set forth in section 330(a)(3).

11 21. Pursuant to section 330(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may award the 12 professional persons reasonable compensation for all actual, necessary services rendered based on 13 the nature, extent and value of the services rendered, time spent on such services and the cost of 14 comparable services other than in a bankruptcy case. The Court may also award reimbursement for 15 all actual, necessary expenses incurred pursuant to this same section.

16 22. Province submits that the requested professional compensation during the Final 17 Compensation Period is fair and reasonable under the circumstances of this case and its 18 representation of the Debtor therein. Each Province professional brought a high level of expertise
19 and experience which inured to the benefit of the Debtor and their estate.

20 23. The professional services performed by Province were necessary and appropriate to 21 the administration of the chapter 11 case, and were in the best interests of the Debtor, the estate,
22 creditors and other parties in interest. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is 23 commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problems, issues, and tasks
24 involved. The professional services were performed expeditiously, thoroughly, and in an efficient
25 manner. Province submits that its fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged
26
27
28

1 by comparably skilled practitioners in a competitive market. Province has carefully reviewed the
2 detailed time records submitted with the Application and exercised appropriate billing judgment.

3 24. Province has not entered into any arrangement or agreement with any person or entity
4 with respect to the sharing of fees and expenses for which Province is seeking compensation and
5 reimbursement as set forth in this Application, except as permitted by section 504(b)(1) of the 6 Bankruptcy Code.
7

8 25. Province submits that the professional fees for services rendered during the Final
9 Compensation Period are reasonable, actual and necessary under the circumstances of this chapter 11
10 case and therefore should be allowed.
11

12 CONCLUSION

13 WHEREFORE, Province respectfully requests that the Court (i) allow on an interim basis
14 fees in the amount of $676,643.55 for services performed and $1,551.51 for expenses incurred, for a
15 total of $678,195.06 during the Second Interim Compensation Period of September 1, 2022 through
16 December 2, 2022, (ii) final approval of fees in the amount of $1,258,025.05 for services performed
17 and $2,301.58 for expenses incurred, for a total of $1,260,326.63 during the Final Compensation
18 Period of May 24, 2022 through December 2, 2022, and (iii) an order authorizing and instructing
19 payment of $315,157.67 to Province, which is the total amount of fees and costs of Province
20 incurred during the Final Compensation Period ($1,260,326.63) minus the amounts that have already 21 been paid to Province ($945,168.96) pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order.
